

SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT SCIENCES HOSTS HEARTFELT FAREWELL CELEBRATION FOR FINAL YEAR B.SC. STUDENTS

41.43 ▾

May 29, 2025 Arijit Bose

May 29, 2025 Arijit Bose

Lucknow: The School of Management Sciences was abuzz with excitement as the second-year students of B.Sc. organized a grand farewell party for their senior batchmates. The event was a poignant celebration of the final year students' journey, marked by cherished memories, laughter, and a sense of accomplishment.

The ceremony was graced by the esteemed presence of the Director SMS, Dr. Ashish Bhatnagar, Director General (Tech.), Dr. Bharat Raj Singh, Associate Director Dr. Dharmendra Singh, Dean Student Welfare Dr. P.K. Singh, Dean- Engineering, Dr. Hemant K Singh, HOD (HAS) Dr. Ajai Singh Yadav, HOD (Civil Engineering) Dr. Asha Kulshrestha, HOD (Mechanical and Electrical) Dr. Kamlesh Singh, and other respected faculty members.

During the event, a series of fun-filled activities and competitions were organized, culminating in the announcement of Mr. and Miss Farewell 2025. Sachin Kumar and Archana Sharma from the third year of (link unavailable) were declared the winners of this prestigious title, while Ayush Gupta and Anushka Yadav were announced as the runners-up.

The farewell party was a fitting tribute to the final year students' dedication and hard work, and a testament to the strong bond between the students and faculty of SMS.

<https://thelucknowtribune.org/school-of-management-sciences-hosts-heartfelt-farewell-celebration-for-final-year-b-sc-students/>